Always to Be Remembered

For the first time in 31 years the familiar face and friendly smile of I. R. Metzler will not greet the students and faculty on opening day of school.

Arriving at Beaverton in 1922 fresh from three years of naval service Mr. Metzler took over positions of teacher and coach. A graduate of O.S.C. class of 1920, he held titles in high jumping and pole vaulting.

In 1923 'Mike' organized the Fire Squad and has been the adviser since that time.

1924 brought his election as principal of B.H.S. Since then he has guided the mushrooming growth of the high school from 130 students to 1005 and from 15 rooms to 45 rooms.

So now in 1953, as he prepares for retirement, the Beaver staff dedicates this book to the man whose name is synonymous with Beaverton High, 'Mike' Metzler.

'53 Proves Successful

As school opened this year, many new problems came to Principal I. R. Metzler and Vice-principal Karl Kahle, but with the help of the office staff and faculty, such problems were soon disposed of.

Twelve new teachers and over 300 freshmen were shown around, the fifteen new rooms readied for classes, and dozens of other duties completed.

Mr. Kahle, after serving last year as president of the Principal Association, is now on the advisory board.

Administration

I. R. Metzler discusses the possibilities of a color scheme pattern for dance decorations with a B-Hi student.

Karl Kahle, vice-principal, glances up while searching for information in the filing cabinet.

The office is always filled with students and teachers busily occupied before first period takes up.

Practice teacher Miss Betty Moshofsky, a former B. H. S. student, and Mrs. Winifred Heid, substitute, chat in the office before the 8:45 bell.

Largest Faculty Gives "All"

A busy, bustling faculty comprised of 36 instructors—an all-time high—gave their "all" to the school and students this year.

Recognition was given Mrs. Ann Elliott, commercial teacher, and Mrs. Eleanor Duncan, vocal music, when they were chosen as members of the state textbook criteria committee.

Miss Bernice Conoly and Miss Amarette Barnes taught Oregon high school publications advisers at the U. of O. summer school of journalism.

New instructors numbered 12 this year.

LIVENGOOD, MRS. DOROTHY

HUSEN, CARL

DEGREES: B.S., O.S.C.; TEACHES: Arts and crafts; biology; ADVISES: Sophomore class

From the smiling countenances of Carl Husen, Arus Bird, Mrs. Vera Cress, Miss Bernice Conoly, and Glen Hollar, crafts teachers, it is apparent that good grades are in store for many B-Hi students.

I. R. Metzler, principal; Arthur Pearson; Mrs. Letha Turner, clerk; Roy N. Bowman; Harris Hansen; Karl Kahle, vice-principal; and William Saunders assist Chairman of the Board William Cameron in penning plans for the '53-'54 school year.

Taking a short break from their tight schedules are Mrs. Evelyn McGill and Mrs. Letha Turner, secretary and clerk, respectively.

Board Makes Decisions

Unseen and unheard by most students, the school board makes important behind-the-scene decisions at each monthly meeting.

Headed by William D. Cameron for the past seven years, the board has, among other things, established and financed the long-term building plan now in effect.

I. R. Metzler and Karl Kahle serve as administration delegates, and Mrs. Letha Turner is clerk.

Other members are Roy N. Bowman, Harris Hansen, Arthur Pearson, William Saunders.

*Good luck for the rest of high school
Miss Orton*

Readers' Whims Satisfied Here

Gathering pennies for overdue books and arranging attractive bulletin boards were two duties of thirteen student librarians and Miss Beverly Orton.

Heading the list of library duties are checking books in and out, mending books, and in general, catering to the whims of students.

The library staff was composed of Ted McBride, Bill Miller, Arlene Rogers, Dick Rickson, Kathy O'Connor, Jim Springer, Diane Schendel, Janet Wootten, Lee Zumwalt, Jerry Alexander, Bob Sheldon, Mike McCoy, and Francis Putnam.

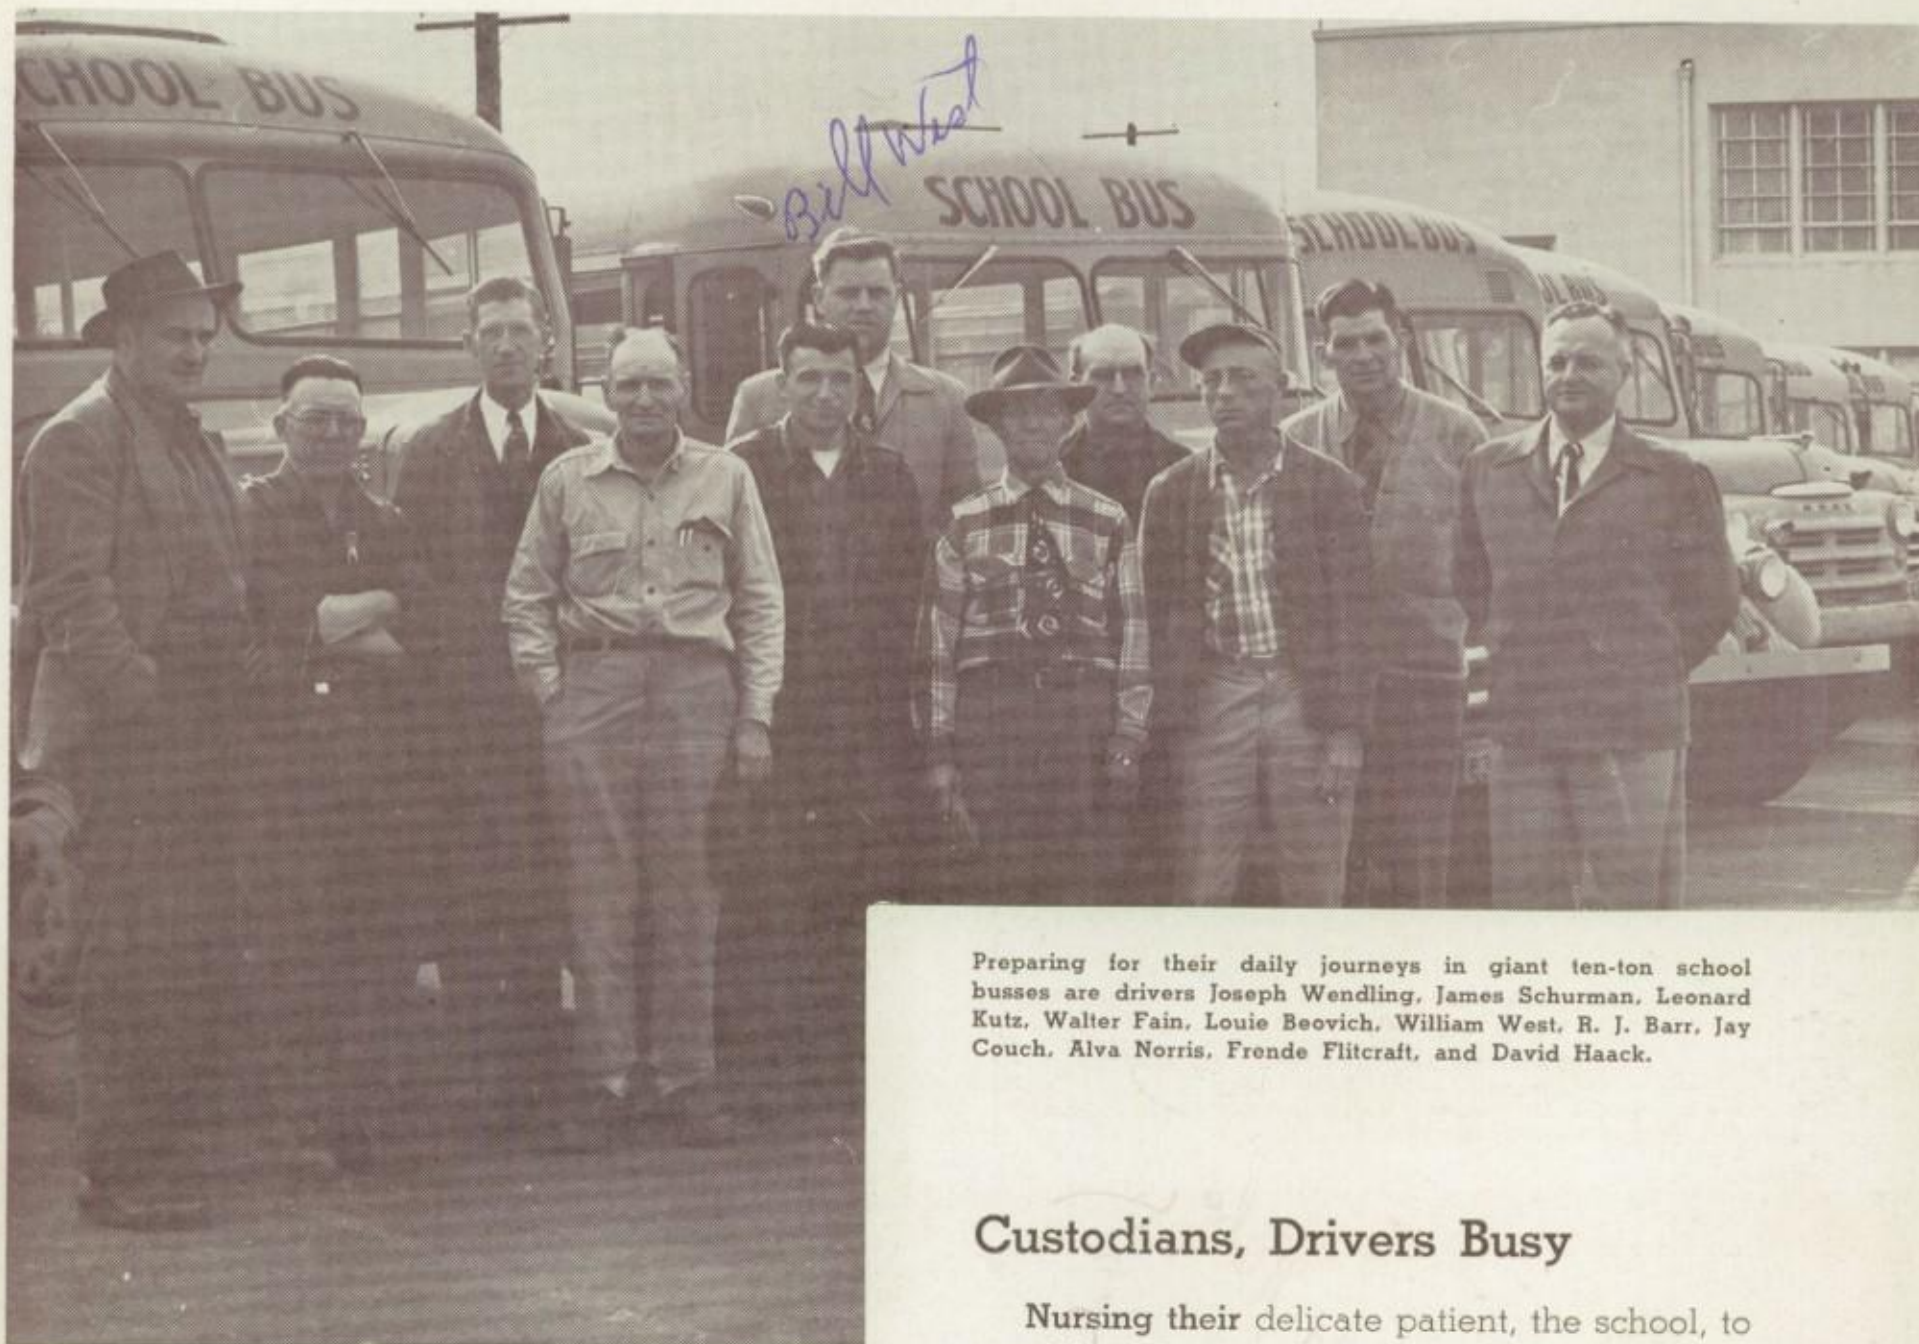

Never too busy to smile is head-librarian Miss Beverly Orton.

A familiar sight — Lee Zumwalt stamping due dates, Diane Schendel filing, and Bob Sheldon thumbing through cards.

Student librarians brushing up on studying are Dick Rickson, Jan Wootten, Ted McBride, Kathy O'Connor, Jim Springer, Bill Miller, Marilyn Thomson, and Arlene Rogers. Standing are Frances Putnam and Mike McCoy.

Preparing for their daily journeys in giant ten-ton school busses are drivers Joseph Wendling, James Schurman, Leonard Kutz, Walter Fain, Louie Beovich, William West, R. J. Barr, Jay Couch, Alva Norris, Frende Flitcraft, and David Haack.

Custodians, Drivers Busy

Nursing their delicate patient, the school, to good health, as reflected in shining corridors and smooth-riding buses, were six hardworking custodians and eleven bus drivers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day, head custodians, and Gene Beighley, Frank Zimbrick, Robert Baxter, and Merle Howell performed many "backstage" duties such as floor-washing, window-polishing, desk-varnishing, and laundering.

Bus drivers Joseph Wendling, James Schurman, Leonard Kutz, Walter Fain, Louie Beovich, William West, R. J. Barr, Jay Couch, Alva Norris, Frende Flitcraft, and David Haack expertly manned the fleet of 12 buses throughout the school year.

Relaxing 'round the new juke box and sipping cups of hot coffee are custodians Robert Baxter, Merle Howell, Gene Beighley, Frank Zimbrick, Mrs. Luella Day, and John Day.

Cooks Cater to Connoisseurs

"The way to a student's heart is through his stomach"— was the philosophy of Mrs. Josephine Weaver and Mrs. Emma Baker, cooks who concocted delicacies to suit hungry appetites.

Chili, hot dogs, potato salad, and stew were some of the favorite dishes of the year.

Donna Scott, Mary Scheel, Harriett Fisher, Iva Sue Palmer, Ken Jackson, Bruce Steele, Sharon Wilson, Robert Rowe, Larry Weirich, and Ann Nielsen helped with cafeteria duties.

Modern up-to-date equipment such as an electric dishwasher, potato peeler, and an electric mixer made work easier and quicker for the cooks.

The cafeteria also served as a banquet room for the Y-Teens, P.T.A., T.Y.V. Press Club, and many other social affairs.

Mrs. Josephine Weaver and Mrs. Emma Baker, cooks, prepare baking powder biscuits to put into the oven.

Activities Distinguish Seniors

Copping prizes, honors, and activities, the Class of '53 looks back on a memory-packed year.

TYV All-Star football team claimed Bob Lee, Ernie Zwahlen, and Bob Rasmussen. Dick Grant, sharp-shooting basketball forward, placed ninth in TYV scoring. Bob Brooks, wrestling team president, was top individual point-getter in that sport.

Senior-sponsored after-game dance, "Frosty Frolic," honored Don Peck and Lenny Matson as "Jack and Jill Frost."

Vern Litvin walked off with state honors in the "I Speak for Democracy" speech contest.

Outstanding speech student, Diane Schendel, set an unprecedented BHS record with the accumulation of 365 forensic points.

Kay Badger "tugged" home a trophy and second place win from the Willamette Valley Twirling contest. Trophy holders, Barbara Ewer and Ron Reed, received first places at the Linfield Speech Tournament.

Last-minute activities of senior breakfast, baccalaureate, final exams, and graduation May 28, climaxed the year.

Underclass Years Busy Time

With college, business, or matrimony ahead, seniors recall the familiar three years of high school before they reached the final step — the classification of a senior.

Bumps and spills accompanied the Freshman-sponsored skating party. "Growing Pains" were replaced by real aches and pains. Sponsorship of a movie enlarged the Freshman treasury.

Vital Student Body Offices were filled by Sophomores. Travis Cavens began the duties of assistant editor of the Hummer while sports reporter duties were ably performed by Kent Davidson. Rick Mercer was elected to a position on the yell staff.

Juniors became pickle sellers to finance their prom. "Evening in Paris," and after game dances helped swell the treasury. P.S. The prom was a success.

Second semester president, Jon Wright, and first semester president, Hod Wells, discuss plans for the next class meeting.

Juniors

Chuck Shea, Rita Stone, Marilyn Neupert, Sylvia Kain, Ruth Mollinger, Hod Wells, Dave Lauro, Bill Aulerich, and Sam Sinclair prove they aren't superstitious when they open their umbrellas and discuss their coming dance.

Fortune Smiles on Juniors

"Oh, those ambitious Juniors!" They did everything—from selling candy at games to producing a dreamy prom.

They captured the service plaque for the second time by contributing $173.30 to the football scoreboard drive.

Producing the "best prom ever" was uppermost in the minds of the prom committee. The "Superstitious Swing" on Friday the 13th helped them to earn the necessary funds for this annual event.

Ruth Mollinger and Sally Larson were elected princesses to represent their class at the "Pigskin Prom" and Lorraine Rich was chosen to be a model in the style show in Portland.

First semester president Hod Wells was assisted by Bill Aulerich, vice-president; Rita Stone, secretary; Ruth Mollinger, treasurer; Sam Sinclair, reporter; Chuck Shea, song leader; Marilyn Neupert, pianist; and Sylvia Kain and Dave Lauro, yell leaders.

Jack Oberst, vice-president; Elaine Sullivan, secretary; Ben Indahl, treasurer; and Virginia Hampton, reporter; supported second semester president, Jon Wright. Paul Bailey was song leader; Ed Hicks and Jill Meeke, yell leaders; and Bob Webber, pianist.

Enjoying their lunch together are first and second semester presidents, Jim Sinnerud and Roger Peck.

Sophomores

Since drastic changes were made in the building during the summer, first semester Sophomore officers have trouble finding their way around. They are: Arlene Banta, Ted Miller, Robbie Samuels, Jim Sinnerud, Jean Vander Meulen, Bob Moore, Ray Smith, Harris Hansen, Martha Eagleson, and Nancy Kokich.

Third Termers Prove Brainy

Athletic? You bet. Some Sophomores even held berths on varsity squads. Jim Sinnerud, Ted Miller, and Bob Grant played top notch football. Making a debut on "A" squad basketball were Ted Miller and Roger Peck.

Proving their scholastic ability the class of '55 earned the most blue cards the first semester.

Sophomores entered the social whirl with a class-sponsored dinner, climaxed by the whole group doing the hokey-pokey. After dinner they attended en masse the J. V. football game.

Officiating for first semester was Jim Sinnerud, president, accompanied by Ted Miller, vice-president; Arlene Banta, secretary; Ray Smith, treasurer; Bob Moore, reporter; Robbie Samuels, pianist; Harris Hansen, song leader; Martha Eagleson, Nancy Kokich and Jean Vander Meulen, yell leaders.

Royal Moore and Denny Owen, Frosh presidents, are "proud as punch" over winning the coveted service plaque.

Freshmen

Baby Beavers Active All Year

"Active" was the word for this year's Freshman class. Within a month of school opening, they gave themselves a party, well supplied with food, entertainment, and games. Performers for the occasion were Bob Wambach, magician; George Ludwig, accordionist; and Linda Horney, pianist.

Continuing their theme of activity, the Frosh won the service plaque for the largest attendance at the last Friday home basketball game.

The first officers to start the class of '56 rolling were Royal Moore, president; Gary Oberst, vice-president; Judy Hall, secretary; Lee Metcalf, treasurer; and Bob Wambach, reporter.

Second semester officers were Denny Owen, president; Gregg Altenhofen, vice-president; Sally Shea, secretary; Glenla Ely, treasurer; and Ron Pauly, reporter.

Serving all year were yell leaders Joyce Holmes and Pat Weaver and song leader Shirley Gertsch.

Assembly Line-Up Sparkles

President Travis Cavens had as the theme for his assemblies — variety.

Starting the year with an audience-participation hour, he followed it with equally interesting programs. Mark Hatfield from Willamette University described the Republican National Convention; Lewis and Clark drama students presented a laugh-filled backstage sequence; and students campaigned for funds for a much-needed electric football scoreboard.

Second semester elections brought brothers into the lime-light. Dick and Bob Grant both took student body offices, Dick as president and Bob as manager.

Among the outstanding assemblies the second semester was the speech on conservation by Ron Shay, 1946 Beaver graduate. The annual Fire Squad assembly presented Dr. Richard Morgan with his colorful Canadian Mountie slides; an absorbing talk by FBI special agent explained how to hold up a bank and get caught; an Easter assembly was sponsored by the Hi-Y. Biggest hit of the year was the presentation of tiny tots from the Kinder Kollege.

An innovation this year was the appointive office of assembly manager held first semester by Kent Davidson.

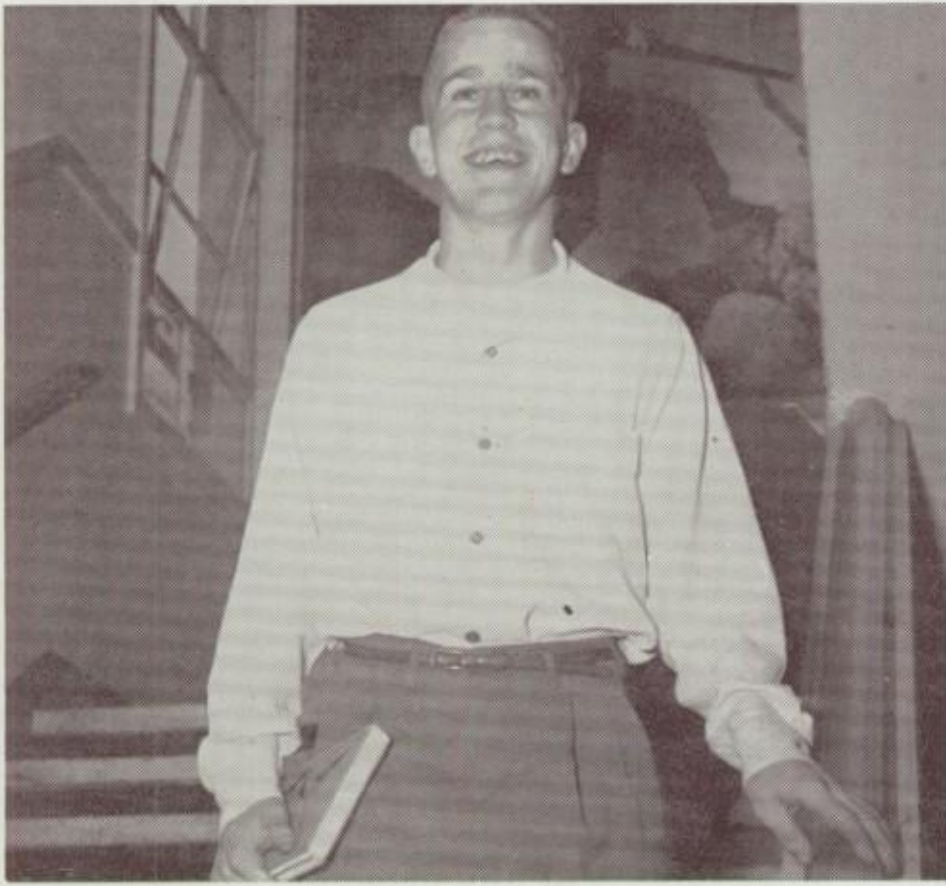

Election campaigns were sparked by posters such as Marlene Fery and Buzz Hagen are hanging in the front hall.

First semester student body officers Jack Brown, reporter; Dale Burger, vice-president; Dick Grant, manager; Joanna Chadwick, secretary; Ted Burton, treasurer; gather to check the proceeds of the score-board drive.

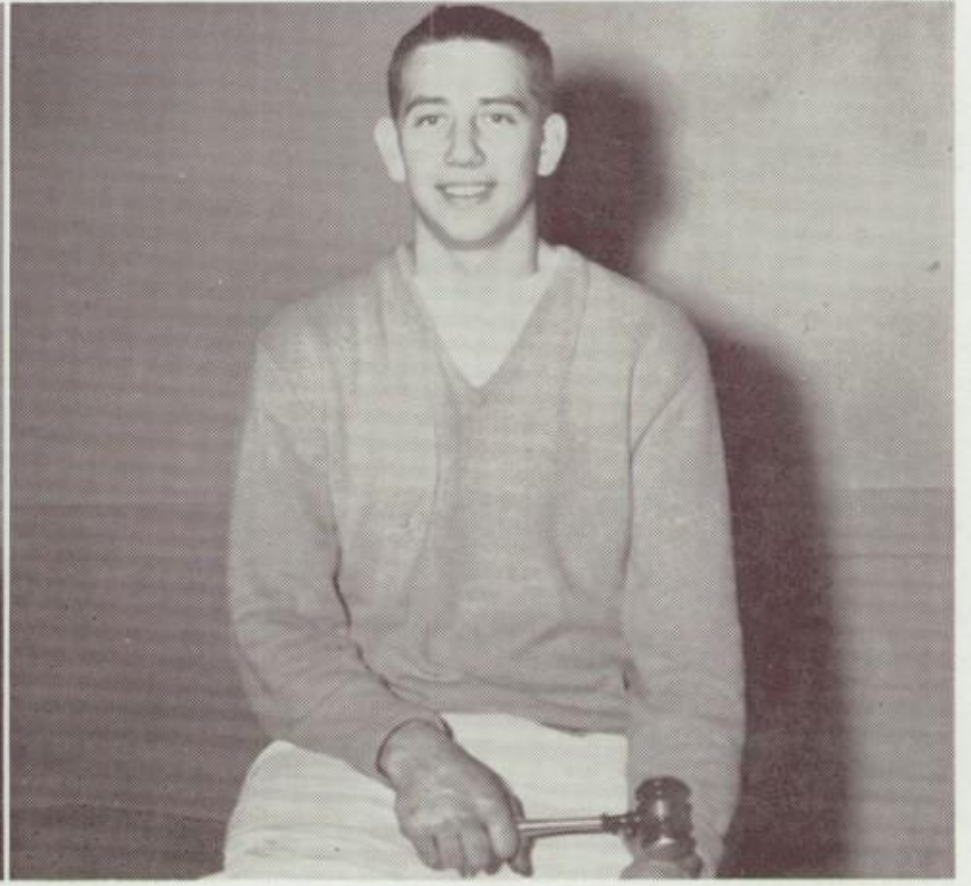

Second semester student body officers Kent Davidson, vice-president; Bob Grant, manager; Marilyn Neupert, reporter; Sue Thompson, secretary; and Don Bowman, assistant treasurer, discuss an SOS telegram asking for aid in the European flood disaster.

Travis Cavens, first semester president, beams for photographers on his way to trig class.

Dick Grant, second semester president, practices the gavel-pounding technique in anticipation of his first meeting.

Y-Teens

Pleased with student response to an SOS for clothing are Y-Teen officers Darlene Wright, secretary; Nadine Manos, vice-president; Martha Walters, president; and Meg Hampton, treasurer.

Row 3: Evelyn Kolstad, Peggy Cutts, Miss Beverly Orton, Carol Burris.

Mrs. Wippel presents corsages to Meg, Ginni, and Mrs. Hampton, chosen "sweethearts" at the mother-daughter banquet, Sweetheart Serenade.

Activity Is Their Motto

Once again the Y-Teens have left behind them a successful year of activity and service.

Presenting the annual Thanksgiving assembly, turkey raffle, and hot cross bun sale, and helping Junior Red Cross collect old clothing for Western Europe were highlights of the year's projects.

The club, largest girls' organization in school, was hostess to Y-Teenagers from district schools at the midwinter conference in February. Feature attractions were buzz sessions, a movie, swap shops, and speakers.

To complete the year, Beaverton Y-Teenagers were in charge of decorations at the interclub spring formal, held in Portland.

President Martha Walters, assisted by a capable cabinet, planned varied meetings, including a style show with Beaverton girls as models.

Advisers of the organization were Mrs. Dorothy Wippel, Mrs. Elaine Moshofsky, and Miss Beverly Orton.

Always willing to lend a helping hand to the organization are active seniors, Carol Burris, Gayl Benson, and Gwen Ellis.

Penny comments on the latest vogues as Arlene and Jake step through the rose arbor at the March style show.

Amiable Princess Jo Chadwick well represented Beaverton Y-Teens at the all-city formal, "Orchids in the Moonlight," held in Portland.

With eyes fixed on President Dick Grant, Bill Henderson, treasurer; Don Bowman, vice-president; Howard Eaton, secretary, listen to the details of the next Boys' League meeting.

League Sponsors Intramurals

With Dick Grant handling the gavel for Boys' League this year, the club continued to create interest — both athletic and scholastic — for all boys in school.

Dick, with the help of Mr. Freese, adviser, organized a committee to regulate noon hour intramurals and to increase athletic activities. Members of the intramural board were Bill Bruce and Ralph Holland, seniors; Bill Aulerich, junior; Roger Peck, sophomore; and Greg Altenhofen, freshman.

Outstanding meeting of the year was a demonstration of fire arms and military effects, presented by the National Guard.

Innovation this year was the Sports Carnival. Basketball, boxing, callisthenics, track, volleyball, wrestling, tumbling, and close-order marching were exhibited to show parents progress gained in athletics.

Mr. Freeze points out winner of basketball intramurals as the intramural board, consisting of Bill Bruce, Bill Aulerich, Ralph Holland, chairman, Roger Peck, Dick Grant, and Gregg Altenhofen, look on.

"Dig 'em deep" is the motto used by Dirk Davidson, Dean Barzee, Bob Grant, Jim Barnett, and Mel Schisler as they plant trees in the Tillamook burn.

Pajama clad Lowel Gillespie prepares to jump through the legs of Bobby Stout during the Sports Carnival sponsored by the Boys' League.

Bob Rasmussen, first semester president explains to Ralph Holland, second semester president, a few of the executive duties.

Drivers Prove Their Motto

To promote safe driving throughout the school and community was the aim of the Drivers' Club whose membership was 158 this year. Joseph Nelson, new teacher, advised the club.

Duties and qualifications of a "cop" were discussed by a state policeman at one of the monthly meetings, while a movie depicting idiosyncracies of various drivers highlighted another get-together.

Presiding over the club first semester were Bob Rasmussen, president; Ted McBride, vice-president; and Jerry Erickson, secretary-treasurer. Ralph Holland held the reigns second semester and was ably assisted by Bob Lee and Chuck McClure, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

G. A. A.

Outings on G.A.A. Calendar

As President Diane Schendel rapped the gavel to officially close the first Girls' Athletic Association meeting, she officially opened the 1952 membership drive . . . 238 girls responded.

Under the leadership of Diane the girls sponsored a ski trip to Mt. Hood, an after-game dance, a skating party, bowling party, and potluck dinner.

Every sport from mountain climbing to swimming helped the girls to earn the all-important 50 points for their letters which were handed out on the annual beach trip.

When twenty girls work together to complete a task, success is a certainty. With this philosophy the twelve G.A.A. squads swung into action and took over the details of the year's activities.

Miss Beverly Gates and Miss Ellen Forslund advised.

The G.A.A. cabinet members relax on the steps to discuss their latest project. They are Elizabeth Krautschied, secretary; Elaine Sullivan, treasurer; Evelyn Kolstad, vice-president; Sally Graves, sports manager; Diane Schendel, president.

Smiling their approval eleven G.A.A. squad leaders listen intently as Bernadine expresses her opinion.

Row 2: Dale Burger, Ben Indahl, Don Bowman, Dick Grant, Ernie Zwahlen, Bart Olson, Bill Bruce.

Presenting a big problem to the Hi-Y presidents, Bill Bruce and Dale Burger, is the bill to be presented before the legislature.

Hi-Y Drafts Legislation

The halls were once again filled with new members, a total of 48 instead of 24 as in the past years, of Hi-Y.

Carrying shoe shine equipment, wearing the traditional tie and tee shirt, pushing pieces of paper down the hall with their noses were all a part of the initiation ceremony.

On the serious side the Hi-Y sponsored an annual Easter assembly, and attended Church as a group several times during the year.

Filling the office as president for the first semester was Dale Burger. Ably assisting Dale was Bill Bruce, vice-president; Kent Davidson, secretary; Don Bowman, treasurer; and Travis Cavens, chaplain.

Leading second semester was Bill Bruce, president; aided by Ernie Zwahlen, vice-president; Chuck McClure, secretary; Don Bowman, treasurer; and Don Peck, chaplain.

Jr. Red Cross

J. R. C. Projects Help Needy

One of the busiest organizations in the school was the Junior Red Cross Council. Supervising the activities this year were Kay Bader, president; Darrell Allyn, vice-president; Sue Anderson, secretary; Jim Springer, treasurer; and Kent Davidson, reporter.

Worthwhile service projects included the presentation of clothing and toys to needy children at Christmas; the making of sock dolls for orphans at the Waverly Baby Home; and entertaining of residents of the Home for the Aged.

To raise funds they sold cake for ten cents a piece during the lunch hour. The "Hoop Hop" also helped raise money to send a representative to camp this summer where he will learn about the Junior Red Cross movement throughout the state.

Dep Club

Yell Leaders Darrell Allyn, Judy Holmes, Mike Madden, Jerri Stewart, and Art Emig display the style that won them honorable mention for their cheering section at the Basketball Jamboree. Yell Queen Judy Holmes, first semester, and Yell King Art Emig, second semester, led the squad.

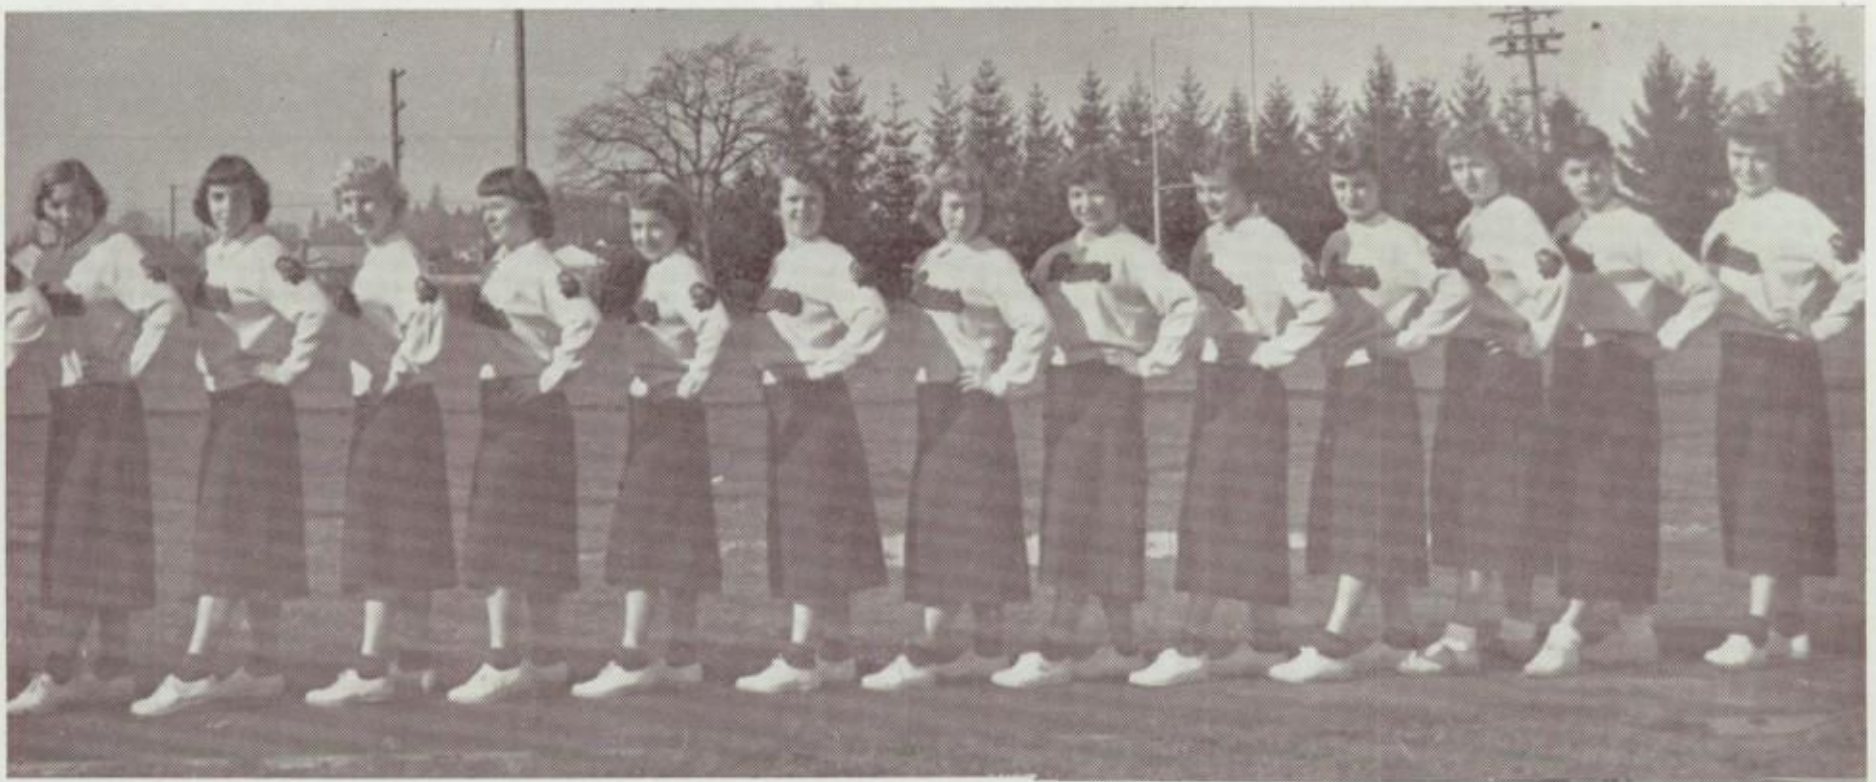

Broad smiles on the faces of Rally Squad members Kathy O'Conner, Nadine Manos, Rogene Whitcher, Kay Bader, and Evelyn Kolstad show the pleasure they get out of yelling for the Beavers.

Sandra Wheeler, second semester pianist, gives Song Leader Mim Spruill the pitch while Ron Kingsley, first semester pianist, looks on.

New Outfits Spark Pepsters

Neatly adorned in their new black culottes, white sweaters with novelty beaver emblems, white shoes and black socks, the Pep Club led the student body in promoting school spirit.

Leading the club were presidents, Julia Kauffman and Janice Hackett; vice-president, Penny Lilles and Marilyn Neupert; and secretary-treasurers, Ilene Olson and Sue Anderson.

Among their activities was the annual Pigskin Prom after the Oregon City game. The group also sold candy at games to finance their activities.

Julia Kauffman, first semester president, tells Janice Hackett, second semester president, about the candy sales, an important Pep Club activity.

Business manager Ralph Holland, adviser, Miss Conoly and editor, Travis Cavens doggedly check and recheck major year-book problems

Making yearbook receipts was a part of the large job done by Florence Jakobson, Meg Hampton, Sue Thompson, Ray Stacy and Barry Ott, business staff members.

Marilyn Martin and Carolan Popp, highest yearbook salesmen, attract some "hungry" looks as they lap up ice cream cone prizes. Editorial staff members looking on are: Audrey Lawson, Larry Matson, Peggy Cutts, Jim Bass, Jerri Stewart, Ernie Zwahlen, Joanna Chadwick, Lee Zumwalt, Art Emig, Jan Hackett and Janice Cline.

Staff Hurries Amid Flurries

Amid a flurry of deadlines, page layouts, and cut underlines, the 22 seniors on the year-book staff combined efforts and proceeded to mold the 1953 Beaver.

For the annual Annual Assembly, the staff used spot lights and sound effects to convert the gymnasium to a battlefield in mythical Ostinopia, where a gala troupe show, emceed by Meg Hampton, was presented.

Travis Cavens edited the book, Ralph Holland handled business and Miss Bernice Conoly helped in the rough spots as adviser.

Hummer

Staff Works; Wins Honors

In a brand, spanking new journalism room, nine students put out nine Hummer issues, and were the organizers of the Rick Mercer Drive.

Competing in the Pacific University Eighth Annual Northwest writing contest were Virginia Hampton, Kitsy Cooper; Marilyn Martin, first place in news-feature; Craig Cheshire, honorable mention in editorial; Kent Davidson, honorable mention in sports.

The Hummer copped a first class rating in a national judging by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. It was the only paper in Oregon to receive this honor.

Assistant editors Virginia Hampton and Kitsy Cooper aid editor Craig Cheshire in a rush story.

The business staff is composed of Jack Brown, ad collector; Pat Quiett, business manager; Marianne Smith, ad collector; and Jon Wright, ad manager.

Winged B Presidents Ernie Zwahlen and Bob Lee sew last stitch on Big "B."

Athletes Earn Orange "B's"

Bob Lee and Ernie Zwahlen, first and second semester presidents of Winged "B," led their club in a year devoted to the encouragement of good sportsmanship and the promoting of athletics.

Bob was assisted by vice-president Bart Olson and secretary-treasurer Ralph Holland, while Ernie had the help of vice-president Chuck Shea and secretary-treasurer Chuck McClure.

Winged B is an honorary organization for boys who have earned a letter in one of the four major sports: football, basketball, baseball, or track.

Every month the club, with adviser Gene Freese, held a meeting to discuss problems. One of the most outstanding services they performed this year was that of giving Rick Mercer their entire treasury after he was critically wounded in a freak hunting accident.

Home Meetings Provide Fun

It's growing! From nineteen Spanish-speaking members to a grand total of thirty-five.

This year the well-established Panamero club conducted several lively and interesting home meetings.

The first session, at the home of Gwen Ellis, was quite authentic with seasoned tamales, flowered ice cream sections and gaily-dressed initiates.

At Christmas time, the club broke the traditional piñata, after watching absorbing color slides presented by Chuck Brown, while February brought a program of invaluable movies collected by Mr. A. L. Mather on his trip to Central America.

The Club was headed by Nadine Manos, president. Bob Ricks, vice-president, planned the entertainment while Gwen Ellis jotted down the notes. Peggy Cutts handled finances, Elaine Sullivan acted as hemisphere recorder, and Miss Amarette Barnes advised.

Torch Honor

Smarties Bring Yuletide Fun

Who took the scissors? Where's the ribbon? These were familiar cries from Torch Honor members decorating the halls and readying their annual Christmas assembly.

The "Blue Card Gang" was managed by Kent Davidson and Bill Bruce, presidents. Judy Holmes and Lorraine Rich kept the minutes while Jim Saunders and Don Bowman were treasurers. Reporters were Virginia Hampton and Dolores Buckmiller. Mrs. Ann Elliot, Mrs. Kathryn Ward, and George Russell advised the group.

Presidents Bill Bruce and Kent Davidson check Torch Honor point sheets.

Fire Squad Sets New Record

Sirens wail and a split second later the halls are teeming with students filing from the building during a fire drill.

The record — one minute, thirty seconds.

Aside from the Fire Squad's regular duties, they found time to have their regular annual assembly, where they initiate a few of the new members. The night following the assembly they initiated all of the forty-one new members.

Leading the squad for the year was fire chief Dick Grant. Assisting Dick and filling positions of secretary and treasurer were Lieutenants Ernie Zwahlen and Bob Pointer. The righthand men to the three were Captains Lloyd Wold, Bill Bruce, Rick Mercer, Tom Oldenberg, Chuck McClure, Keith Wismer and Phil Chitwood.

Trying out the fire equipment are Lieutenant Ernie Zwahlen, Fire Chief Dick Grant, and Lieutenant Bob Pointer.

"Bang-bang"—"S-S-S-Saw, S-S-S-Saw, S-S-S-Saw"—"Rip-p-p-p, Rip-p-p." Hammers, saws, chisels, and squares are used to their fullest capacity throughout the year by shop boys. Dave and Bjorn show the use of a few of these tools on their modern end table.

...and Take Pride in Our Efforts

In the steadfast belief that a better understanding of our times will make for a more prosperous future, social science students devote one day a week to a study of current events. Jean, Don, Evelyn and Dick examine their new covers for the weekly "Our Times" issues.

Choir

Choir Produces Operetta

B. H. S. choir began the school year on a very harmonious chord.

President Don Dimick, Vice-president Kent Davidson, Secretary Jerri Stewart, and Librarian Jeanne Parks helped Mrs. Eleanor Duncan, director, lead the singing group in many activities, including the Christmas concert and the operetta.

Attending a music festival at Beaverton were choirs from Tigard, Hillsboro, and Forest Grove, each furnishing enjoyable entertainment.

Helping with the operetta, "Pirates of Penzance," March 13, were second semester officers Julia Kauffman, president; Glen Dugger, vice-president; Gayl Benson, secretary; and librarian, Caroline Hulings.

A boys ensemble acted as singing waiters at a Y-Teen banquet, performed in Eastern Star, McMinnville exchange assembly, talent programs, and old people's home, among other things.

Girls' glee sang for Rebekahs, old people's home, and assembly.

Harmonizing around the piano is the boys' ensemble, consisting of Don Dimick, Ted Salo, Kent Davidson, Jim Arnold, Bill Young, Jolly Ditzler, Glen Dugger, and Ron Kingsley.

Bands

Bands 'Drum Up' Music

"Get up 'Washington Post.' Twice through the intro with a double to-the-rear," orders Bandmaster Alan Robertson as band and drum corps members snap into line.

Beaverton's largest band in recent years—45 pieces—"showed its stuff" at ball games, assemblies, concerts, and civic affairs and climaxed the year by marching in the annual Rose Festival Floral parade.

Officers were Warren Dillon, president; Alan Toelle, student director; Carolan Popp, secretary-treasurer; Paul Kutz, librarian; and Bob Bullock, sergeant-at-arms and manager.

A 25-piece all-girl drum and bugle corps, brand-new this year, marched into the spotlight via many practice sessions.

Marylee Hart captained the group with Mr. Robertson advising.

Assisting were other officers Sharon Sheeley, Sally Howard, Ellen Wold, Dixie White, and Charleen Redding.

Rehashing a recent performance are band officers Bob Bullock, Warren Dillon, Paul Kutz, Carolan Popp and Al Toelle.

Row 2: Frank Hale, Margie Galbraith, Marilyn Thomson, Neil Cameron, Kenneth Rennie, Joann Holtan, Les Cowger, Steadman Shaw, Skip Saunders, Paul Kutz, Tom Brown, Bob Bullock, Warren Dillon.

Row 3: Dennis Livengood, Bill Blackburn, LaRue Perrine, Gary Day, Ray Bunn, Craig Hoaglin, Gary Wilhelm, Alan Toelle, Ed McCallen, Dick Brenner, Jay Hauger, Howard Bethea.

Row 4: Virgil Burger, Marylee Hart, Rod Harris, Keith Herman, Shirley Molash, Carole Thackeray, Stuart Lange, Carolan Popp, Nancy Sullivan, Kay Bader, Margaret Wright, Sally Shaw, Penny Lilles, Leigh Wilcox, Mr. Robertson.

Row 1: Anita Patton, Sue Page, Sharon Sklensky, Dolores Shaper, Joyce Craig, Lorrie Boles, Lois Bastian, Darlene Filley, Karen King, Sally Howard, Delphine Scheters, Dixie White.

Row 2: Sharon Sheely, Ellen Wold, Pat Reilly, Nancy Holland, Beatrice Skiles, Mary Willenburg, Nadine Jensen, Beverly Satterlee, Nadine Shaper, Charleen Redding, Sandra Boswell, Mary Overby, Marylee Hart.

Heading the band and giving a snappy baton signal is Penny Lilles.

Majorettes Kay Bader, Margaret Wright, Sally Shaw, Carolan Popp, and Nancy Sullivan pause to offer a salute and a smile at the end of an intricate routine.

Every day second period Wanda Cox, Phyllis Dimler, Marsha Rich, Doralee Snyder, Donna Scott, and Director Alan Robertson get together to play orchestral music.

Dreamy music issued forth every Thursday night when these dance band members practiced.

Speech

Karl Freerksen, Diane Schendel, Vern Litvin, Kathy O'Conner, and Jim Bass receive a word of wise advice from Coach E. G. Webb. These five and Don Peck made up the "Big Six" of the year.

In Speech class it's the students who "crack the whip." A president, vice-president, and several other officers are chosen by the class at intervals. Here President Art Emig hands the gavel over to the new president Karl Freerksen.

"Webb's Army Marches On"

A reputation for "bringing home the bacon" from speech tournaments was established many years ago. This Year was no exception to the rule.

The eager Webbmen got an early start on trophy grabbing at the Pacific tourney and continued to prosper all through the year. Vern Litvin, Don Peck, Kathy O'Connor, Jim Bass, and Karl Freerksen, shone at the above mentioned tourney.

At the Linfield tournament the Beaver-speakers won four cups and several places with Lorrie Boles, Barbara Ewer, Jack Knapp, Ron Reed, Diane Schendel, and Art Emig taking the honors.

Other place winners during the year were Bill McCamman, and Pete Ditmars.

Mr. Webb frequently makes a "witticism" while he makes his usual comments on the day's program. Here, part of the class seems to enjoy the humor while others are not too sure they "got the punchline."

The beginners turned out in scores this year. As shown here they all held debate in preference to other fields of public speaking.

In this corner we see the glory and benefits of the past years achievements. Cup and first place winners are:

Pigskin Promers Feted

The spot light shone on dark-eyed Queen Shirley Eagles at the Pigskin Prom, held during football season.

Shirley's court for this annual, Pep-club-sponsored dance included Sally Larsen, Sally Shaw, Jean Vander Meulen, Jeanette Vail, Nancy Sullivan, and Ruth Mollinger.

Council Presents Hoop Hop

With the Swingmasters providing music, a January Friday night was filled with fun and dancing.

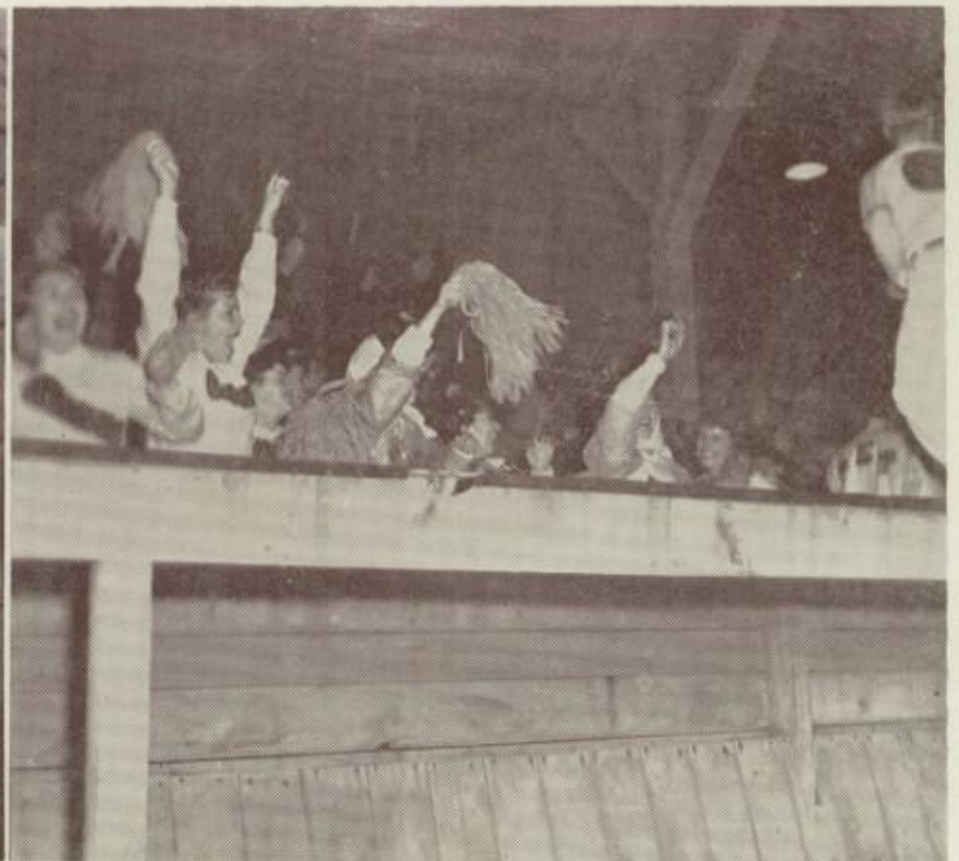

The Hoop Hop was sponsored by Junior Red Cross Council and featured, during intermission, a French can-can presented by student dancers.

Prom 10 Fathoms Deep

Bathed in shimmering black light and surrounded by glowing wall murals, dancers at the 1953 Junior Prom were transferred into the simulated depths of the ocean.

Furnishing melodious strains, the music of Jay Howard's orchestra, seated in a giant pink shell, gave added zest to the long awaited event.

Also lending an authentic air was a shipwreck scene from which refreshments were served by freshman girls.

The Patrons and Patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Quiett, Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Neupert, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ritchie, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Van Buren.

Junior Prom

During one of their hectic busy evenings before the big night the Prom committee try to settle a few of their problems. They are:

Sitting: Jack Oberst, Bob Bauman, Bob Weber, Marilyn Neupert, chairman, Virginia Hampton, Dolores Buckmiller.

Standing: Sue Anderson, Elaine Sullivan, Marlene Fery, Dale Pickard, Diana West, Bill Tri, Rita Stone, Chuck Shea, Jon Wright, Hod Wells, Buzz Hagen, Chuck McClure.

Sunny dispositions, sparkling smiles, and starry-eyed dancers were a few of the factors which made the Junior Prom a dance to be long remembered.

Sinister Dr. Fersig (Dick Wilkins) explains to Mrs. Hubbard (Dick Feeney) that he "was only keeping the diamonds as a favor," in "The Skeleton Walks." The rest of the cast, Elaine Sullivan, Sue Thompson, Elaine Slocum, Joe Keim, Meg Hampton, Jerry Alexander, and Ann Effinger are spellbound at the unusual turn of events.

Pugnacious Stanley Clark (Darrell Helmcke) takes a poke at Willie (Travis Cavens) in "The Inner Willie." The rest of the cast, Jeanne Parks, Jamesetta Burkett, Ted Burton, Lenny Matson, Bob Zurcher, Dolores Buckmiller, Dixie White, Ellen Huygens, and Elaine Slocum, look on.

Dramatic Productions Featured

For the first time in many "moons," students got a taste of show business when Miss Patricia Holtz, Robert McKean, and Mrs. Eleanor Duncan rounded up casts and produced three dramatic extravaganzas.

"The Inner Willie," a hilarious comedy starring Travis Cavens as the meek Willie, with Bob Zurcher his mischievous inner self, was presented in November.

Then came a colorful operetta, "Pirates of Penzance," with costumes, songs, and all. It was staged by Mrs. Duncan and the vocal music groups and starred Kent Davidson as a bold, handsome pirate.

Rounding out the drama calendar was a thrilling mystery comedy, "The Skeleton Walks," which featured Dick Wilkins as a sinister character named Dr. Fersig.

Bevo fullback Ernie Zwahlen grits his teeth in a plunge through Tiger linemen to gain a few precious yards and upset Newberg 22-19.

Chuck Shea, left half, sparking the lagging Beavers, led in the scoring column. He was named safety on the TYV All-Stars.

Pigskin Men Tie for Cellar

Hindered by numerous injuries plaguing their top backfield stars, the "Beavers" found their bid for the 1952 conference championship stalled by star-studded teams produced in other TYV league schools.

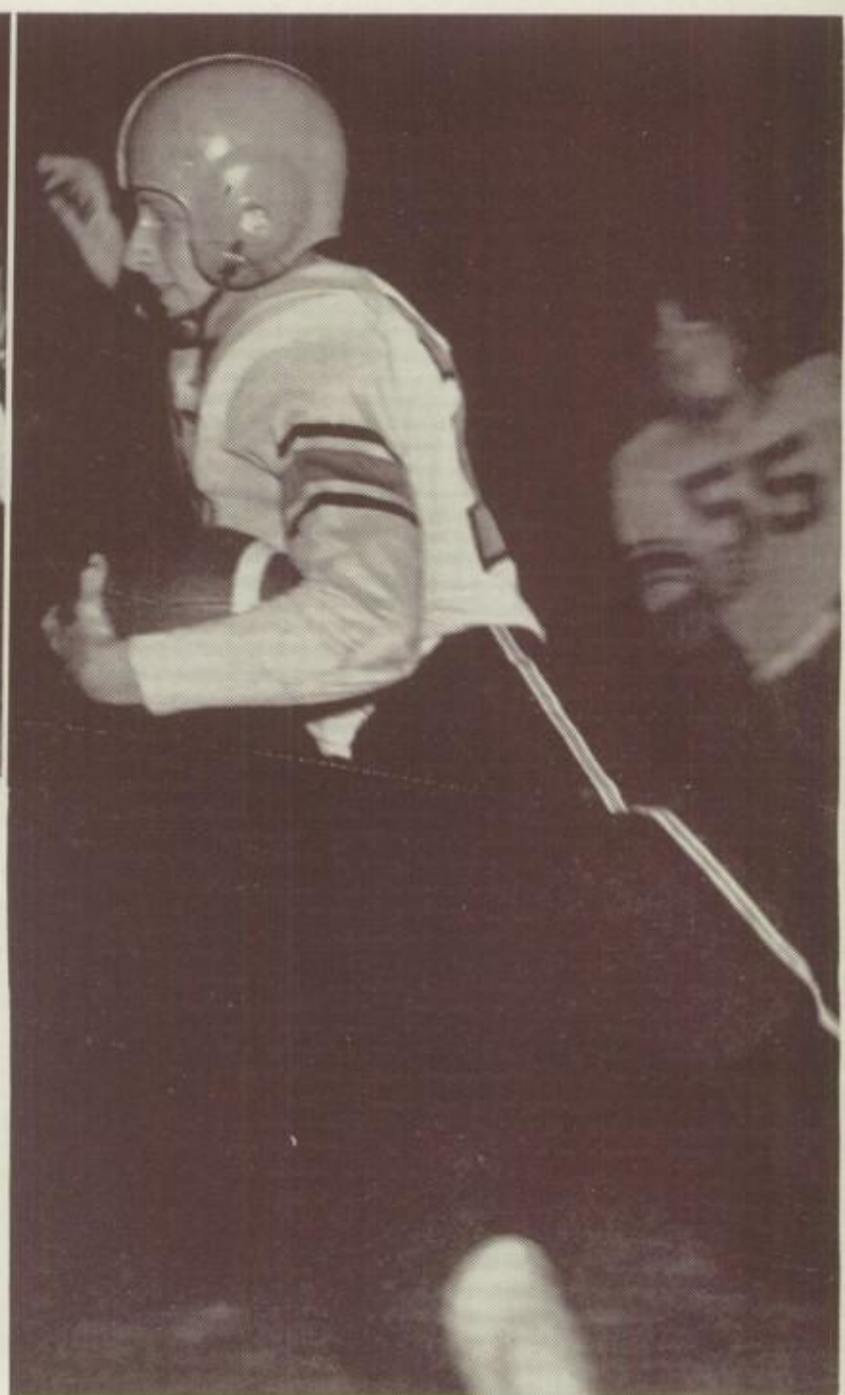

The football squad, coached by Gene Freese, Ed Bader and Duane Moore, hit midseason stride in belting Dallas 40-6; lost ground in a heart-breaker to eventual league winners Hillsboro, 32-20; snapped back to conquer Newberg 22-19; then fell victim to five straight losses to conclude the season.

Returning veterans Dale Pickard, Ralph Holland, Bob Rasmussen, and Bob Lee led the way in all Beaver triumphs, turning in stellar line play.

Though tying for seventh place, Beaverton grid-men nabbed four TYV all-star positions: Bob Lee, tackle; Ernie Zwahlen, halfback; Bob Rasmussen, guard; and Chuck Shea, safety. Chuck McClure was named to honorable mention.

JV. Frosh Hit Rocky Season

Junior varsity turfmen rounded out their stormy 1952 schedule with one win in seven contests.

Only season victory for Bob Perry's crew was chalked up against Tigard, 33-12, in the season finale. McMinnville and Newberg shaded the gridgers on 7-6 and 12-6 counts.

A real fighting spirit was shown by linemen Sam Sinclair, Frank Foley, Elroy Farah and Bill Gunther as they cleared the way for hard-running back Ron Anderson and signal-caller Fred Mondin.

Coach Bill Logan and his Frosh charges came through the rugged 1952 season with two wins, over Hillsboro and McMinnville, and four losses, including a heart-breaker to West Linn.

Outstanding players were Malcomb Clement, Lee Metcalf, Gregg Altenhofen, defensively, and Gerry McGann, Bob Williams, John Landis, Gary Oberst and Larry Stearns on offense.

Beavers Startle District

Coach Bob Perry's hard-fighting Beavers had another last minute disappointment as Hillsboro defeated the Beavers twice to gain a berth to the state basketball tournament at Eugene.

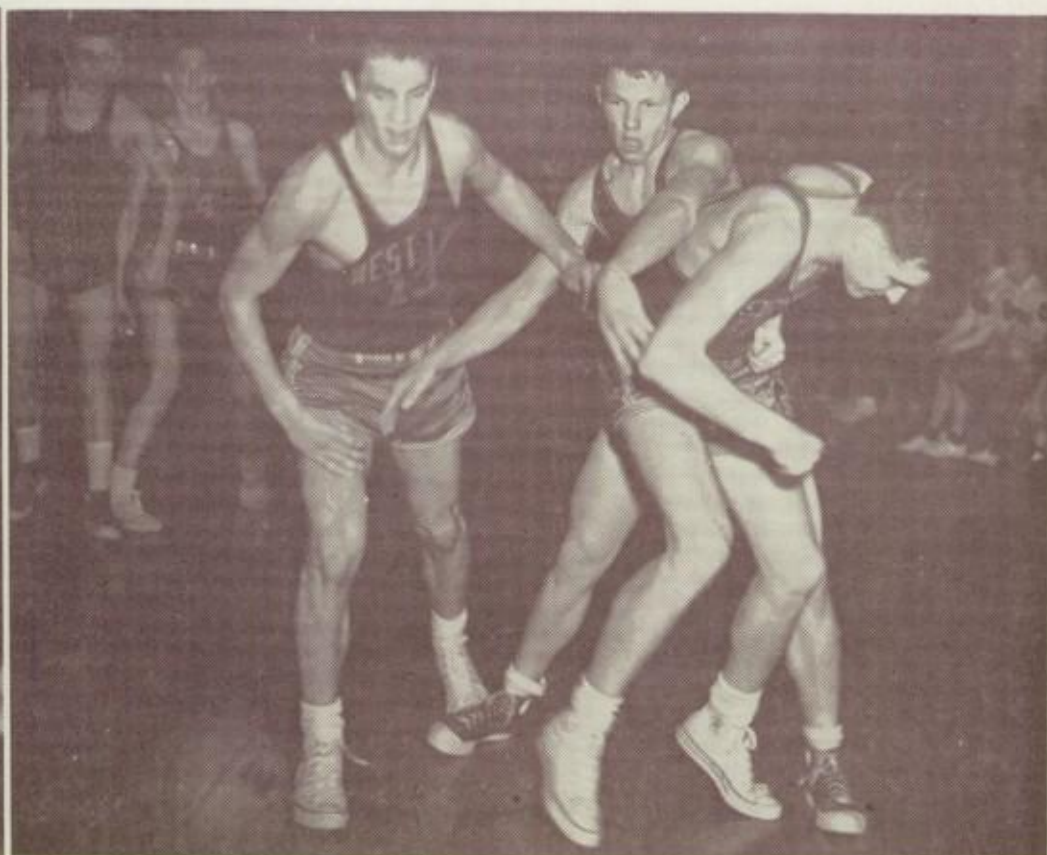

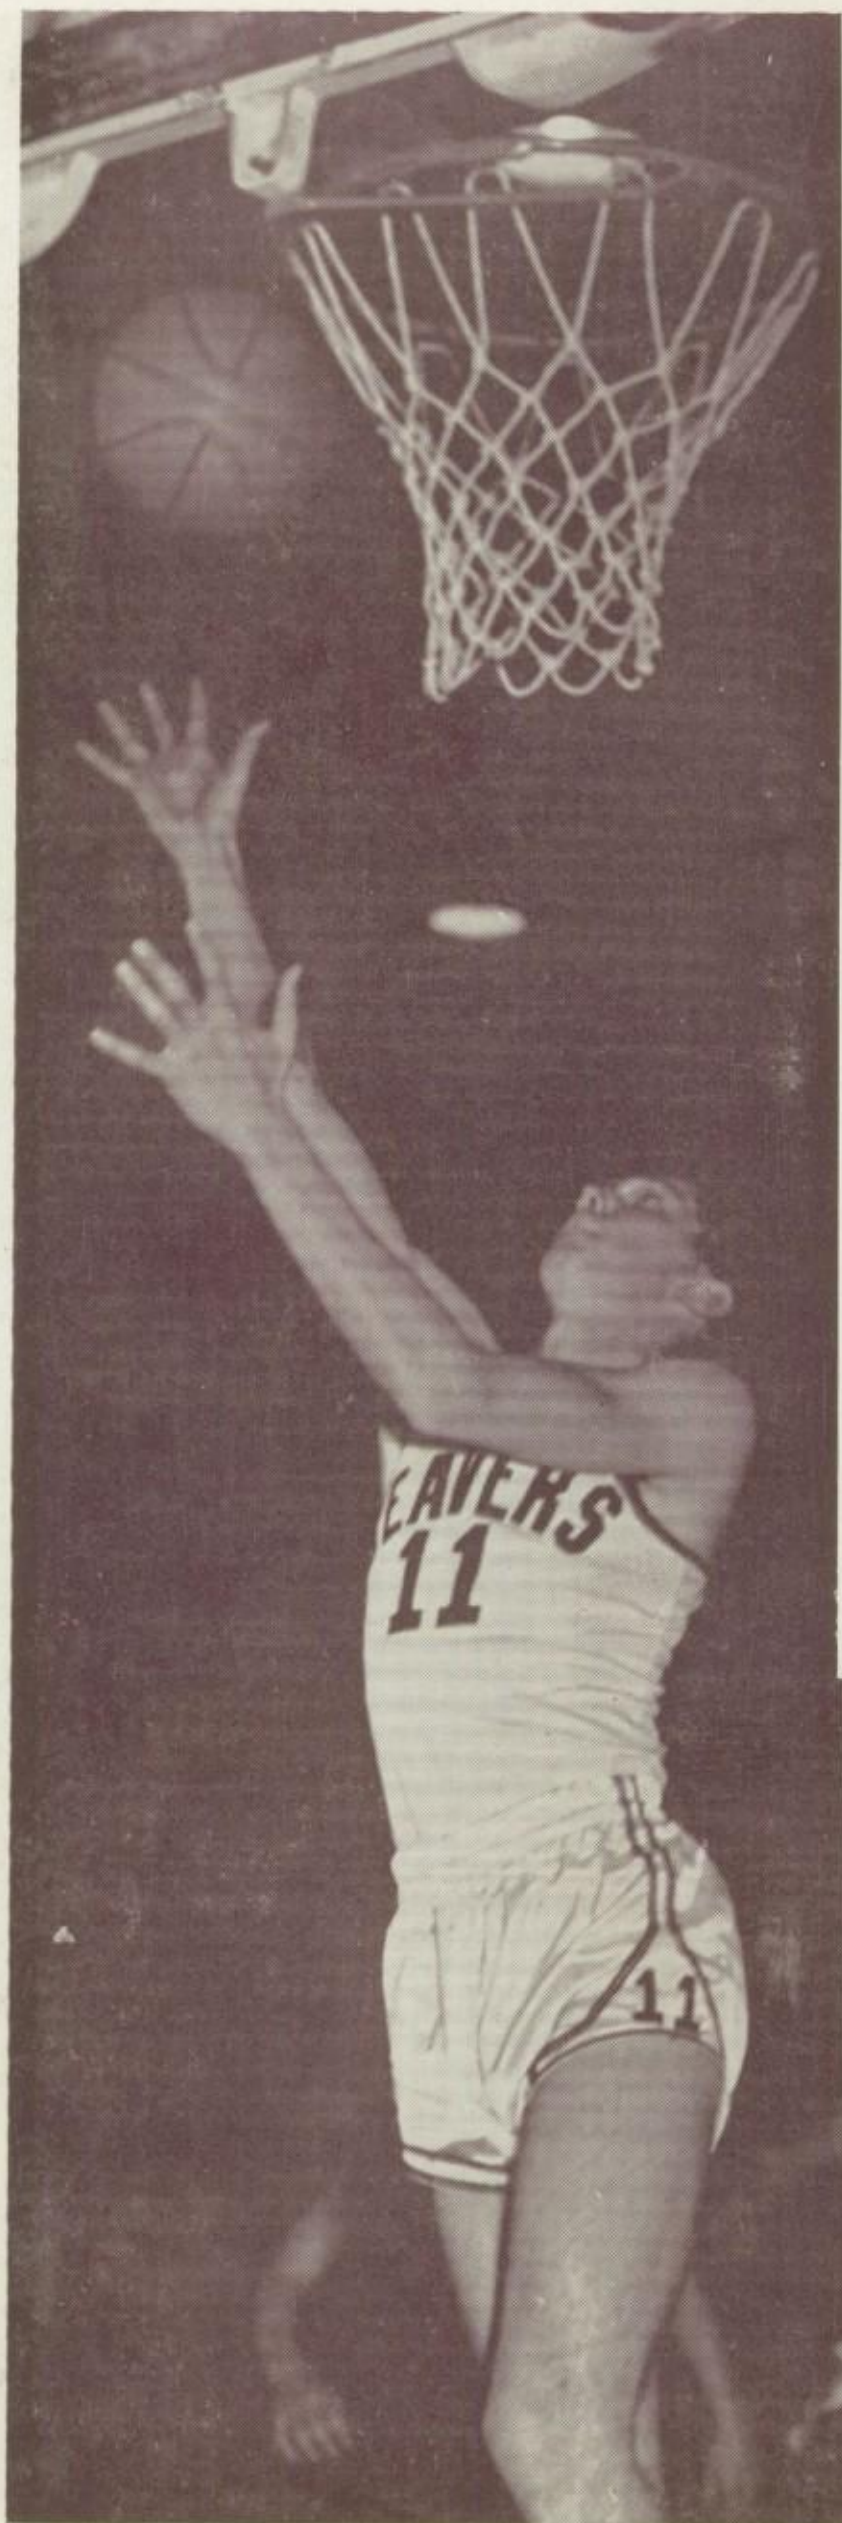

Beaverton, with Dick Grant and Chuck Shea hitting the hoop, pulled in one of the biggest upsets in the state by defeating Hillsboro in the first district tournament game. The Beavers dropped Forest Grove in the second game but were stopped by the Spartans.

With six seniors, Bob Lee, Dick Grant, Lee Zumwalt, Bill Henderson, Barry Ott, and Ernie Zwahlen, graduating, the Beavers will lose their height average of over six feet.

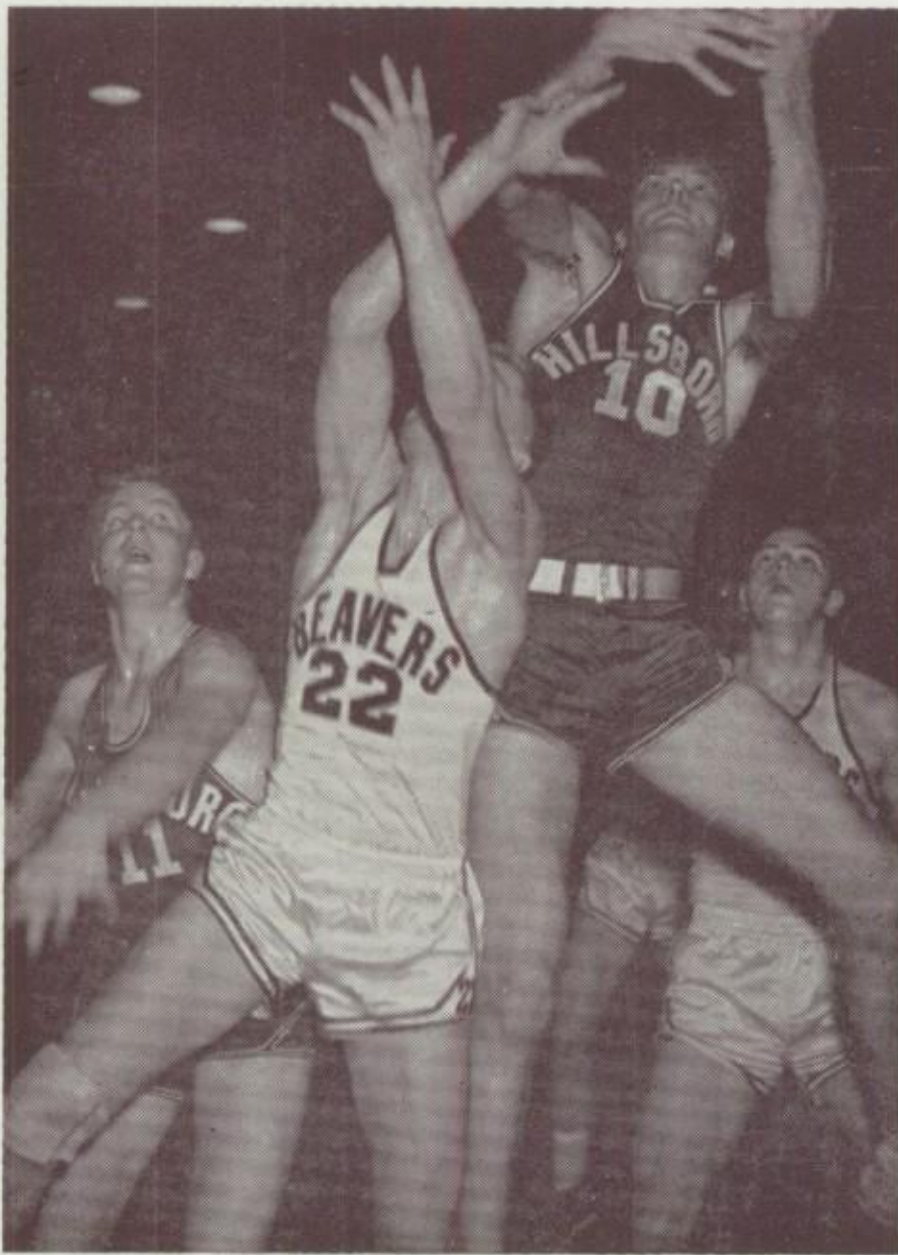

Returning lettermen next year will be Roger Peck, Ted Miller, Chuck McClure, and Chuck Shea. Dick Grant, team captain, was leading scorer with 223 points and was selected to the TYV All-Star team. Chuck Shea was named honorable mention and scored 208 points this season. Chuck McClure scored 139, Lee Zumwalt hit 112 and Roger Peck swished the hoop for 97.

J. V.'s Capture League Title

Beaverton's J.V.'s had an outstanding year as they established a 13 win-one loss record and captured the TYV league championship.

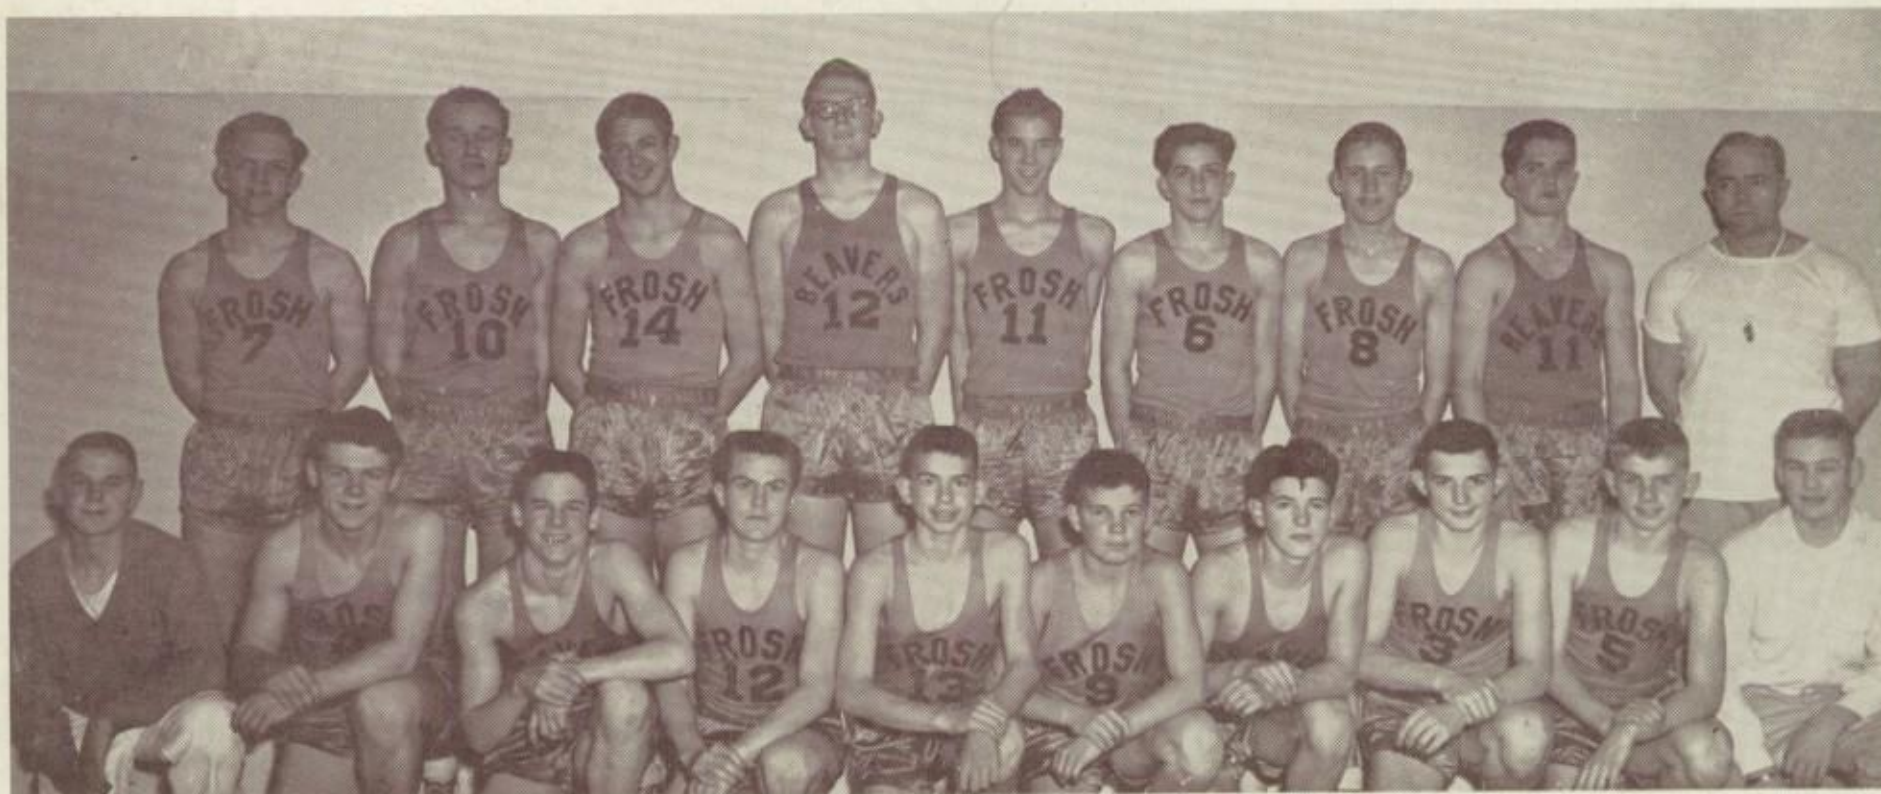

Leading the squad was Dirk Davidson with 223 points and Ben Indal and Bob Grant, close behind with 186 and 182 points respectively. John Dean scored 114 and Roger McKnight 113 to round off the fearsome fivesome.

Beaverton Frosh coached by Gene Freese had one of the biggest turn outs in many years with 67 boys reporting. The team was cut to 16 fellows who supported a ten win-four loss record. Leading the scoring were Roger Nelson 102, Fum Duncan 92, Larry Stearns 72.

Hurlers Lead Hard-Luck Crew

Headed by an imposing array of eight varsity regulars, Gene Duncan's '52 diamond crew wrapped up a 3-11 record, with six of the verdicts heartbreakers dropped by a single run.

"Dunc's" pitching brigade, Ernie Zwahlen and Bill Henderson, lit the victory fuse as Ernie tossed a masterful one-hit shutout and Bill turned in a pair of four-hitters.

Meanwhile Ed Ramsdell and Jerry Erickson piloted the Bevo's heavy artillery in the batting column with potent .333 and .306 marks respectively.

Defensively, Jerry held down the first sack, Dick Grant patrolled second, peppery Jack Hunt roamed shortstop, and Bill Bruce protected third, as catcher Ramsdell deftly guided his battery mates.

Jim Sinnerud, Kent Davidson, and Sam Simich topped the outfield contingent with consistently alert play.

Bill Logan's J. V. baseball team came through the 1952 season just short of a .500 average with six wins and eight losses.

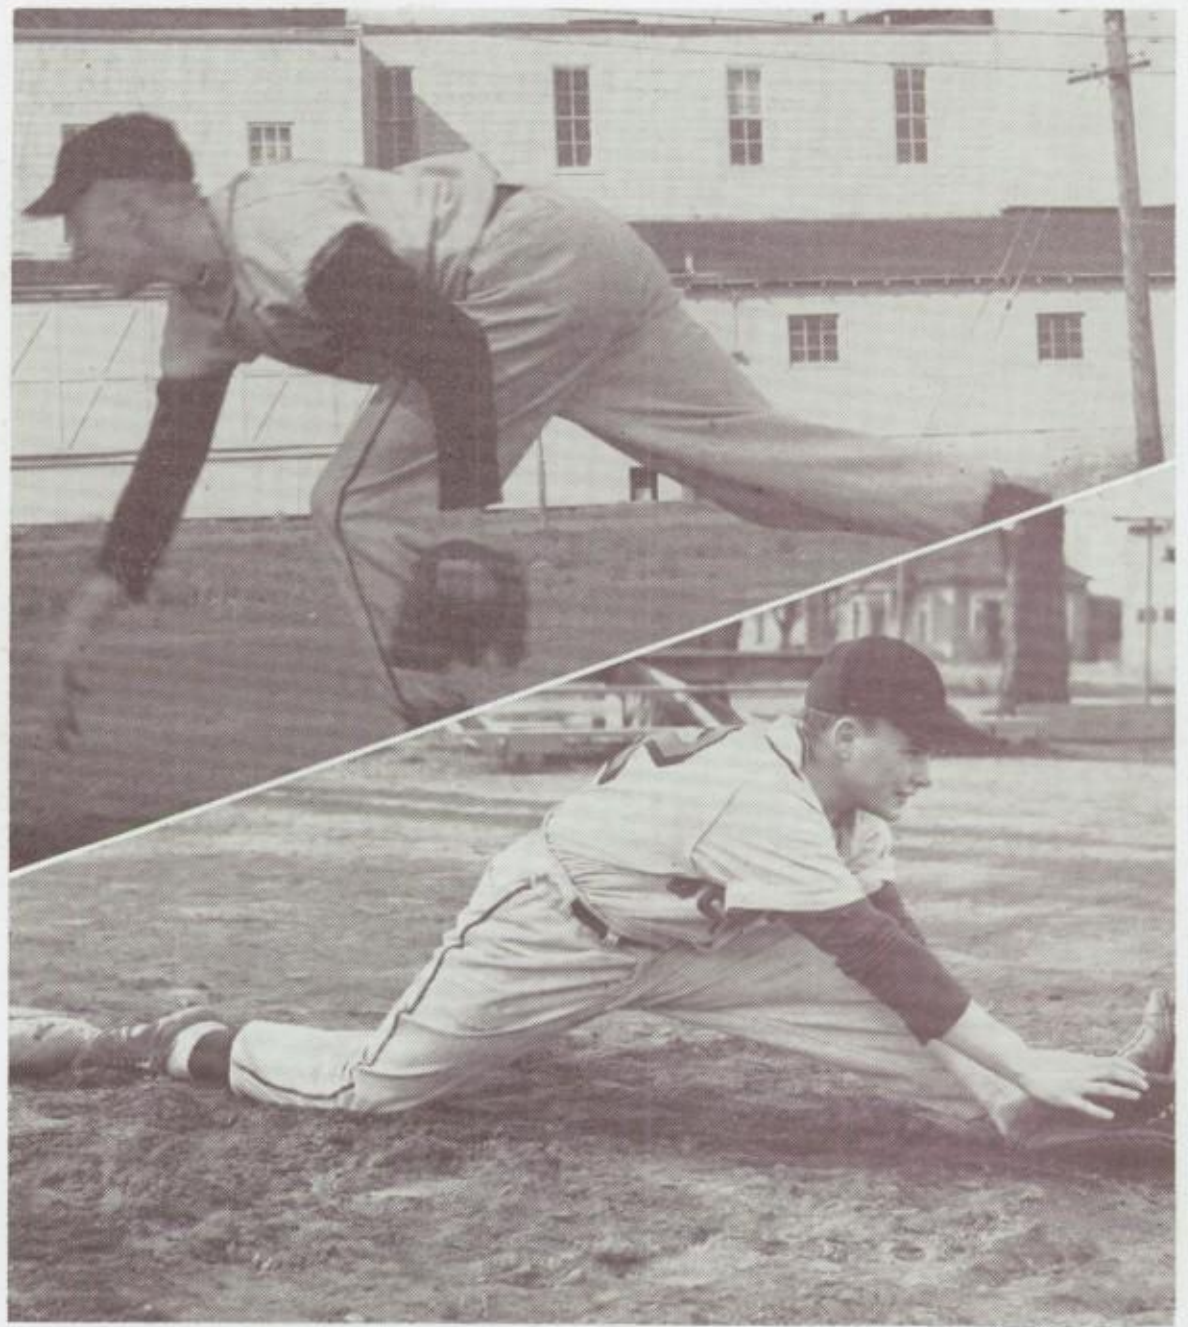

Chuck Shea led the pitching staff of Bob Haines, Ron Kipp and Bob Grant with an impressive no-hit, no-run game, a pitcher's dream, over Forest Grove.

Players supplying "big sticks" were Jim Barnett with a 400-plus average, followed closely by Chuck Shea.

Beavers Run — Records Fall

For the first time in over a decade Beaver thinclads, cast as area kingpins, played second fiddle—to a pesky crew of Hillsboro weightmen.

Led by versatile Dick Bowman, beaten only by the state champion in the 220-yard run and rated fifth in state broadjumping; Mel Mori, speedster on the high hurdles; and Dick Gervais, flashy speed merchant in the 100-yard dash, the tracksters spilled all competition on the cinders but fell short in field events.

In the year's first stop, the colorful Willamette Relays, Ed Bader's sprint stars picked off two firsts and a pair of thirds to finish near the top of the winners' list. Grabbing victories were the relay and shuttle hurdle relay teams, both for the second consecutive year.

Churning into their regular season schedule with the annual Beaverton Relays, the Orangemen chalked up a record-tying time in the sprint medley but still fell to third in final point totals.

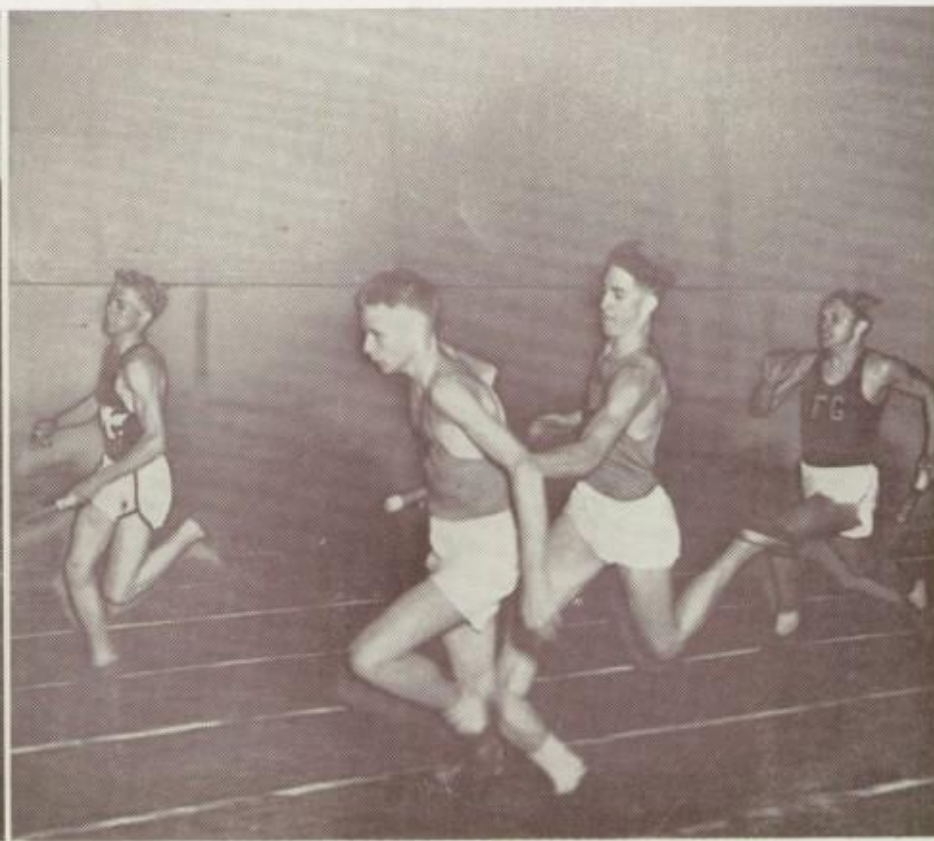

Records tumbled as the well-seasoned runners skimmed over the track to new 880-relay marks in both the county and district meets while Dick Bowman erased the standards in the broadjump at both the conference and county contests.

Rounding out their schedule, the Bevo-men qualified four men—Dick Bowman, Mel Mori, Bart Olson, and Dick Gervais—for state championships where the quartet, consistent winners, piled up a second, third, and fifth to emerge with a final tenth-place state rating.

Howard Eaton skims over the 10-foot, 2-inch mark with perfectly executed form.

Golfers Nearly "Pros"

Iron-wielding divoteers and Gene Duncan, coach met Parkrose twice in interschool matches, winning both times. They also played Oswego and Columbia Prep. Gaining recognition were Barry Ott, who won the Oregon Pro-Junior championship and Portland Golf club junior championship, and Chuck Shea, who took the Oregon Coast junior championship.

What A Racket

The '52 tennis team, coached by Sylvia Gilbert, battled Forest Grove, West Linn, and Oregon City across the net.

Bill Winters, Jim Bass, and Wally Kramer formed a stalwart triple singles attack. Bill and Ron Young went to state, but lost in the first round.

"Big Guns" Shoot

"Off with a bang" was Dr. Lee Thompson's rifle club. Practices were held Thursday nights in preparation for competitive matches with other schools and shooting in state and district tournaments. Ace marksmen were Dave Holmes, Bill Schaer, Fred Hahn, and Bob Ricks, president.

They Bubble With Enthusiasm

"Swimmers take your mark—get ready—bang! Splash!" and 20 B-Hi "water babies" and Coach Beverly Gates formed Beaverton's swimming team. Taking 4th in state meet was Sally Shea, free-stylisht, now swimming for M.A.C. She has placed 5th in state. Ken Shoemake, also swimming for M. A. C., has entered state and district meets.

Ski Club Ambitious And Active

Beavers "took to the hills"—of Mt. Hood—on seven snowy excursions throughout the year. The "Ski-B's," in their second year, inspired the P-TA to sponsor ski lessons. The slat enthusiasts were accompanied by adults on their outings.

Deciding how to hold a tennis racket are Rosie Marie Law, Lavonne Hiller, Suzanne Templeton, and Bonnie Jean MacLeod.

Matmen Worth Their Salt

Beaverton High's wrestling team underwent a successful and thrill-filled second year. Under the direction of Coach Duane Moore the squad made an outstanding showing against some of the keenest competition in the state, ending the season with four wins to six losses.

The team placed fourth in the T. Y. V. League. In the District I tournament the Beaver matmen came home with a fourth place berth and six men, Paul Bailey, Frank Foley, Bill Guinther, Jerry Russum, Harris Hansen, and Ralph Holland, eligible to compete at the state tournament. Jerry Russum, in his first year of wrestling, won state laurels with a fourth place medal.

The wrestling squad members who went to the state tournament were: Bill Guinther, Harris Hanson, Ralph Holland, Coach Duane Moore, Jerry Russum, Frank Foley, Paul Bailey.

Girl V-Ballers Win One Game

Losing all but one game, the girls' A-squad volleyball team never-the-less gained valuable experience and friends.

Coached by Miss Ellen Forslund and captained by Bernadine Bergstrom and Elsie Gentry, the Beaverettes met Forest Grove, Hillsboro, and Sherwood over the net. Following each contest, they and the opposing school team had a social hour, with "chit-chat" and refreshments.

Volleyball intramural team captains were Donna Scott, Marylee Cavens, Colleen Helmcke, Janet Wootten, Evelyn Kolstad, Shirley Molash, and Bernadine Bergstrom.

Approximately 84 girls participated in intramural sports, played during noon hours.

Row 1: Evelyn Kolstad, Carole Thackeray, Rose Marie Law, Shirley Molash.

Row 2: Mary Molash, Sally Graves, Janet Wootten, Elsie Gentry, Helen McIntosh, Bernadine Bergstrom.

Row 1: Suzanne Neelings, Marianne Krautscheid, Sue Bradley, Nancy Berger.

Row 2: Mary Ellen Bergstrom, Lorraine Stark, Janet Butler, Vera Gentry, Colleen Helmcke, Kay Bader.

Basketball Sees Slow Season

Lack of "elbow room" allowed the girls' basketball team to play only one interscholastic game. This was at a "play day" where the femininity lost to Forest Grove.

After-school practices were held several times, with Coach Beverly Gates and Captains Bonnie Jean MacLeod and Janet Butler.

Basketball intramurals took place during noon hours in the gymnasiums.

"Basket, here I come," hopes Janet Butler as Margaret Coates attempts to check her.
